We apologies, for the delay of your payment and all the inconveniences and inflict that we might have indulge you through. However, we were having some minor problems with our payment system, which is inexplicable, and have held us stranded and indolent, not having the aspiration to devote our 100% assiduity in accrediting foreign contract Payments. We apologies once again.

From the records of outstanding contractors due for payment with the British Government, your name and Company was discovered as next on the list of the Outstanding contractors who have not yet received their payments. I wish to inform you now that the square peg is now in square whole and can be vogueish for that your payment is being processed and will be released to you as soon as you respond to this letter. Also note that from my record in my file your outstanding contract payment is GBP
'6,500,000.00 (Six million Five hundred thousand Great Britain Pounds).

Kindly re-confirm to me the followings:

- 1) your full name.
- 2) Phone, fax and mobile #.
- 3) Company name, position and address:
- 4) Profession, age and marital status.

As soon as this information is received, your payment will be made to you in a certified bank draft or wired to your nominated bank account directly from Bank Of England.

Thanks for your good understanding, hope to have your response shortly.
