American Translators Association Elects New Directors

ALEXANDRIA, VA — The American Translators Association, the nation's largest professional organization for translators and interpreters, announced the election of three new Directors: Chris Durban, Geoffrey S. Koby, and Madalena Sánchez Zampaulo.

The new Directors join President Caitilin Walsh, President-Elect David C. Rumsey, Secretary Boris Silversteyn, Treasurer Ted Wozniak, as well as Directors: Evelyn Yang Garland, Rudy Heller, Odile J. Legeay, Jane E. Maier, Corinne L. McKay, and Faiza Sultan.

Founded in 1959, the American Translators Association's primary goals include fostering and supporting the professional development of translators and interpreters and promoting the translation and interpreting professions. ATA, based in Alexandria, Virginia, has nearly 11,000 members in over 95 countries. For more information on ATA, please visit www.atanet.org.
